

2016 Spring / Summer collection

“After Art School “

The boy has finished art school, got his first art studio space and philosophy about his upcoming work.

Dressed in a particular look with the clothing he self customized during art school ages, he wanders around the studio, trying to imagine in front of himself his next art project. He visualizes what to come, what he will become. The space is yet empty but in his mind it is already filled with creativity.

He takes walks in the streets and the nature to gather his inspiration; he walks past concrete structures and buildings. He strolls under the trees and sit in a park to look inside himself and find his true essence of art.

The inspiration of 16SS collection is the particular wardrobe of a boy with artistic creativity.

He self-customizes Basic work-wear , military-wear and Classic items he took over from his father.

All-in-one in fresh summer wool cut into short sleeves and summer wool pants cut into shorts pants decorated with feathers he uses for his art work. Tuxedo pants with half removed leg line. Military parka with lining dyed in blue . Marine bordered knit docked with a knit in mélange .
