

2016 Spring / Summer women collection

-Sphere-

“Under the boundless universe (navy) lays pellucid sky (blue),

The sun (red) with full of hope brightens the enormous ground (beige),

All in the warmest day light (satin), the birds (feather) sing a song...”

The inspiration of 2016 Spring/summer collection is "Sphere",
The earth we live in.

The various elements composing the world we live in gently reflect on those who wear, creating color way and details.

The canvas top and trouser in a photo printed material by photographer Erik Undehn, the graphical dress is contrasted by satin and wool with a detachable skirt, the wide trouser with a hidden satin pleats, the shirts dress with feather pockets in military canvas and it' classic tailoring jackets and coats are implemented on inside out details and organza materials.

The identity of the brand "knits", the assortment of washable knits stands for T shirts in it's technical approach "Vanisè" you can feel the cool and light hand accompanied by the graphical colour contrast. The layered knits for each character an elegant softness atmosphere can be felt. On the pleated knits, delicate line has been implemented. The deep navy colour lined knits, for its technic you are astonished by its textile hand.